

Surviving Wildfire and Drought – Land Management Strategies

Texas AgriLife Extension Service Office
221 S 5th Ave, Palo Pinto, TX

October 28, 2016

8:30-9:00	Registration
9:00-9:15	Welcome and Why Are We Here	Scott Mauney, CEA, TAES Palo Pinto
9:15-10:00	Post-Possum Kingdom Wildfire Land Recovery - What are the Effects?	Ricky Linex, Wildlife Biologist, NRCS
10:00-10:30	Historical Grazing Perspective for Palo Pinto County And Conservation Assistance Available	Myron Merz District Conservationist, NRCS
10:30-10:50	BREAK
10:50-11:35	Grazing Management - The Importance of Observation	Kevin Derzapf Grazing Lands Specialist, NRCS, GLC
11:35-11:45	Questions from the mornings presentations
11:45-12:45	LUNCH – Co-sponsored by Dow Chemical and Bayer Chemical
12:45-1:30	Controlling Brush Resprouts/Seedlings Following Wildfire - Flameleaf sumac, Mesquite, Prickly Pear, Juniper and others	Ethan Westfall, Dow
1:30-2:00	Controlling Brush Resprouts/Seedlings Following Wildfire - Flameleaf sumac, Mesquite, Prickly Pear, Juniper and others	Gerald Hobson, Bayer

2 Hours of Pesticide CEU's will be available.

